1. In the Pontana del Conte district, approximately six kilometers south of Postumia, which includes the town of Pontana del Conte and four small hamlets with a total population of about four thousand five hundred, the monthly food ration for December was reduced 10 percent. The ration, however, included white flour

50X1-HUM

The ration of white flour for a family of five for the month of December was two and one half kilograms. The remainder of the flour ration consisted of Yugoslav brown flour.
